

Macmillan Cancer Rehabilitation & Support Team One-to-One Support

We provide support for clients who are living with or after a diagnosis of cancer. We see clients during treatment, in recovery & remission.

We are based in local clinics & we can visit people in their homes. We offer support varying from basic advice & signposting to helping manage more complex & challenging issues.

We offer:

- Emotional & psychological support.
- Practical guidance & sign-posting to other services.
- Help to manage & access finances.
- Managing your day-to-day routine.
- Rehabilitation to regain strength & mobility.
- Support in pre-palliative stage.
- Assistance to enable return to work.
- Learning to live well after cancer.
- Access to the HOPE self-management group.

We accept referrals over the telephone, via fax & e-mail.
